means; the hands are set in the same way. The advantages of these improvements are obvious, the case, which never need opened in winding, is made air-tight and dust-tight, thus reserving much longer the fluidity of the oil, and greatly prolonging the intervals between the necessary cleaning of the Silver Keyless Watch, Lover Movement, Flat, Jeweled, Extra Jeweled, Stout Double Cover 8.75 Gold Keyless Watch, Open Face, Lever Escapement,

BEWARE. Beware! Beware! for

"She is fooling thee, She is fooling thee,

Trust her not— Oh, trust her not!" This subject is represented by a beautiful young lady sitting in a rustic chair, beneath the overhanging branches of a fine old clm tree; she is faultlessly dressed, with her long golden ringlets hanging down over her shoulders; in her lap is a shower of beautiful flowers. Near by is a beautiful waterfall, while in the distance tower mountain peaks. Taken as a whole, it is a lovely picture—the beautiful lady in the rustic chair in a thoughtful mood, luxuriant foliage all around, the beautiful flowers, the landscape, with the blue canopy of heaven o'er all combine to form an enchanting scene, and one that cannot fail to extiate all not fail to satisfy all No. 2 is a fine Oil Chromo, in 20 colors, size 13 by 18 in-

Gathering Ferns.

A beautiful girl of eight years is out gathering ferns—she is barefooted, with no hat on her head, the wind playing with her golden locks. She has her apron tull of ferns. It is a beautiful picture of childish beauty and innocence, and cannot fail to find favor in the eyes of all. The coloring of the landscape is very fine. In the distance is seen the little one's iome. The picture, as a whole, is very beautiful and true to ture. It is well worth the price of a year's subscription to e FIRESIDE VISITOR, yet every subscriber gets the VISITOR a year, and the five chromos for the small No. 3 is a fine Oil Chromo in 20 colors, size 13 by 18 inch-

Happy Dreams of Childhood. This Beautiful Chromo represents a sleeping child, a beautiful girl of three years of age. She is sweetly sleeping with her doll clasped in her hands. Over and above her are seen angel forms scattering flowers and blessings on the head of dear one. Beside her couch is sitting her mother intently watching her child, while her hands have paused in the fancy needle work on which she is engaged. It is a beautifully sweet picture, and will find a warm place in every mother's heart in the land. The child sleeping so sweetly with a smile hovering around its lips, the angel forms o'er head, the mother watching her dear one, the rich draperies and furniture of the room make a rare picture of loveliness. It is taken from a rare painting by one of the old masters, and cannot fail to be appreciated by all.
No. 4 is a fine Oil Chromo in 20 colors, size 13 by 18 inch-

The Mute Appeal. This subject represents a beautiful Italian girl, dressed in her native costume. She is what is known as a Street Musician, and earns her livelihood by her violin and voice. She has played and sung to the crowd, and has quietly folded her right arm over and around her violin, while her left arm is outstreched, thus mutely appealing to the public to give her what they may. It is a lovely picture. The girl, though only a strelling player, is rarely beautiful—the sweet, beseeching expression of the face could but make the most sordid find the way into their pockets, and give her a few pennies. It is one of the richest pictures we have seen for many a day. It is brought out in Oil Colors, and is equal in every respect, to and few can tell whether it is an Oil Chromo so faithfully it is reproduced. To see it is to fall to have a to it at once, and every one who sees it, will

BIBLE LOOKING-GLASS! SACRED SCRIPTURES,

And illustrating the diversities of human character and the qualities of the human heart. Consisting of Six Books in One Volume. Profusely Illustrated by Object-Teaching Pictures!

Showing the pain and misery resulting from vice, and peace and happiness arising from virtue.
BY JOHN W. BARBER, and Others. This is the most original work, without question, in religious literature ever produced in our country—as unique and quaint in its way as Bunyan's famous allegory: Among the world of books, it is the only one that instructs in christianity and homan nature on the principle of object teaching. People who would seldom open the Bible itself are attracted to this work, for it is a big picture-book in religion.

Every picture, too, enforces a principle. No book extant so instantly represents the Gospel—no, not even the Bible itself—as this, by its appeals through the eye. Over one hundred and thirty topics are introduced and enlarged upon with illustrative pictures, such as Repentance, Faith, Hope, Love, Justice, Time brings up Truth, The Memory of Righteousness, The Memory of Wickedness, Brotherly Kindness, The Selfish Man, The Christisn Church, The Synnagogue of Satan, The Safe Bridge. The Unsafe Bridge. True and False Principles, Carnal Security, Faith and Works, The Heavenly Shepherd. The Joys of Salvation, The End of REV. W. Human Greatness, &c.

The author is now an old man. His life has been filled and rounded out with good works. He was born in the last years of the last century, in the administration of George Washington, In 1812 he was apprenticed to learn the art of engraving. More than a half a century ago he began, in a small way, as an author. A book about that time was projected by him, under the title of the "Looking-Glass," contaming the essential features of this volume. His earliest publications were large emblematic religious engravings, one of which, in the hands of our missionaries fifty years ago, was he main instrumentality in the conversion of the Queen of human welfare. The costumes are those of the American people when Mr. Barber was young—sixty years ago. They are now oid-fashioned. The Christian religion itself, we believe, is not considered new-fashioned.

The work has great popularity, over 100,000 copies having already passed from the hands of Canvassing Agents into those of the people, where, lying upon the tables of thousands of families, it has acted as a continual teacher of the Gospel.

"The Bible Looking-Glass" being in quarto form, is a companion in shape and character to the Family Bible, which it reflects and explains. While the work is thoroughly evangel ical and orthodox, no peculiar denominational doctrines are advocated; only the great cardinal principles of Christianity, in whic's good people everywhere believe.

The mechanical execution of this work is worthy of its literary excellence, while the low price at which it is offered places it within the reach of all. Sold exclusively by subscription. SAMPLE BOOK CAN BE SEEN.

It is printed on fine Rose-Tint Paper, contains nearly 6:00 pages, and is bound in the most durable binding, and will be furnished to subscribers at the following prices:

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1881. Supreme Court of the Hawaiian Islands-January Term, 1881.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF HIS LATE MAJESTY LUNALILO.

Before Harris, C. J., and McCully, J. J. OPINION BY THE CHIEF JUSTICE. The application for instruction sets forth, that the Trustees of this Estate have leased the Ili of Pau, near Honolulu, Island of Oahu, for ten years, from the 31st day of January, 1880, for $756 a year, with privilege to the lessee of extension for five years more. They have further leased the sea fishery of Waiehu, on the Island of Mani, for the term of five years, at the rate of $255 per annum.

That they have confirmed the lease for the land of Keaau, Island of Hawaii, made by the late Charles Kanaina, for 25 years, from the 1st day of October 1874, which is equivalent to renting for nearly 22 years from the death of Chas, Kanaina, which occurred 15th of March 1877, at $500 per annum and taxes. And the application still further sets forth, that there is a small piece of land inside of the aforesaid Hi of Pau, which the Trustees of the Estate have the opportunity of buying; and that the possession of the said piece of land is essential to the value of said Hi of Pau. The application further sets forth, that the said Trustees are uncertain, at the present time, as to their authority to negotiate and execute leases of the said trust estate; and therefore, pray for instructions as to their authority or the the advisability of leasing the same. At the hearing, it was strongly urged upon us, that these leases were advantageous, and were justified by the words in the Will, "I hereby order and direct that the said Trustees shall apply the nett RENTS, issues and profits, arising from the principal sum, etc. ' And the word " rents," it is said, would involve the idea, that some land might be rented. And we were further urged, at the hearing, that in case we should be of the opinion, that the Will does not give the authority to lease lands, we should ratify and justify the leases above set forth.

This would be manifestly impossible : for the Court can only interpret the Will, and can give no authority not conveyed by it, so that the only thing for us to investigate is what authority the Will conveys; or in other words, what was the intention of the Testator. On that point, the Will states that the estate is to be held by the Trustees for the following purpose: "To sell and dispose of the said real estate (i. e., all of it) to the best advantage at public or private SALE. and to invest the proceeds in some secure manner until the aggregate sum shall amount to $25,000, or until the sum realized by the said Trustees shall, with donations or contributions from other sources, amount to the said sum of $25,000; then, I order the Trustees (to be appointed as aforesaid) to expend the whole amount in the purchase of land, and the erection of a building or buildings, etc." But it is said that the sum already realized, amounts to more than $25,000; therefore it is not necessary to seil any more land. answer is, that the whole land is devised to the Trustees, not to hold, but to sell, so that money may be precured wherewith to aid the infirm. The Testator did not wish to invest in land; his wish was to invest in an Infirmary, and to obtain the means of maintaining that Infirmary and its occupants. This is more apparent when the next clause of his Will is considered in which he adverts to his charity, which reads as follows: .. But in case sufficient buildings shall have been provided for the use and accommodation of poor, destitute and infirm Hawaiians;" that is, provided from other sources as above indicated. Now, what does the Testator do? Does he direct that the sale of land shall stop? By no means. But he goes on to say, "I hereby order and direct, that the said Trustees shall apply the net rents, issues and profits arising from the principal sum, REALIZED from the said real estate, when SOLD as AFORESAID, towards maintaining the said buildings in repair and their improvement and towards the support and maintenance of the inmates." Thus providing again, that the estate be sold and the proceeds invested in some secure manner. This is the only authority given by the will. The whole tenor of the will, is to the effect, that the whole of the real estate shall be turned to ready money which can be readily used: to found this Infirmary, if it shall only amount to $25,000; and if more should be realised either by the contributions of others charitably disposed persons or otherwise, then the estate thus reduced to ready money is to be used for the purpose of improving, enlarging and extending the accommodation and maintaining its inmates,

The Trustees therefore have no authority to lease, and still less authority to buy any real estate; and all leases effected by them must be utterly and entirely void. It is the duty of the Trustees to sell this estate, and we do so advise nesia, letters have been received from Mr. Taylor and Captain Bray, of the Morning Star, and from Messrs. Doare and Rand, of Ponape. The Star had been greatly delayed in her voyage on account of light wind and calms. She reached Butaratari, July 19, finding nothing encouraging on that island. Although six persons have recently united with the church, the king and the people seem given over to drunkenness. On July 26 the Star reached Apaiang, where the missionaries met with a hearty reception from the king and the people. Mr. and Mrs. Walkup and Mrs. Taylor immediately took possession of the house which the Rev. Mr. Bingham had formerly occupied on Apaiang, while Mr. Taylor went on in the Star to visit the southern islands of the Gilbert group. They reached Apemama August 12, and found that a remarkable work had been in

Mr. Taylor, under date of Apemana, August 17, writes :-"We came to anchor at the southern end of this island on the 13th, and I went ashere and was met by a long file of natives, all clothed, who hundred, for when I got on the beach the men brought me each a shell of native molasses, one hundred and fifteen shells in all, and there were about as many women as men. I commenced the ing. I married thirty-one couples, baptized seventy-one individuals, and administered the Lord's Supper. This took till nearly two. 1 enrolled as inquirers. Moses, the native teacher, has been a faithful worker, and it has been a great privilege to be permitted to gather in the peal to him to give up polygamy and become a Christian. He spoke in English: What, me be Christian.' 'Why,' said he, 'I tell people to all hear Moses, and be Christians. 'But I want you to be a Christian. ' Well, 'he said, ' maybe so, by and by.' 'No, now. I want you to be a Christian now.' He looked sober, remembering stand. Catching the idea quickly, he would brighten up and respond at once. There were about 150 gallons of oil, and 174 pounds of twine here, all given in the Monthly Concert contributions. Pray for these people just organized into a church, for the teacher and for the king. I could sit up all night, and did till almost midnight, to do such pleasant work. It pays for all the weariness it occasions, and much to in English, but a number of times I had to speak in the native tongue to make him under-

Captain Bray writes more fully than Mr. Taylor of what he saw on Apemama, and as the story is of such interest, his account is also given. He "It is good to be here. We have been quick ened in our own spirits by seeing the Lord's kingdom extending in the hearts of these heathen. Mr.

Taylor has had a busy time. A church has been organized with seventy-one members, and there are many others wishing to unite, but it has been thought best for them to wait another year. I cannot make it seem like one of the hard Gilbert Islands, for it seems more like the work of the Mortlocks and Losap and Nomr, but nevertheless it is true, and we praise God for his salvation that makes such a change in sinners. "They thought here that the Morning Star was lost, so late was she in arriving. She was at last hailed with joy, and the king sent his boat ten miles to sea to meet us, and see if any one had come to organize a church. This seemed to be the one great desire of all, and it was a pleasure to us to witness the satisfaction expressed when they heard that Mr. Taylor had come for that purpose. We were not boarded this time by naked beathens, but by well-dressed Christians, and instead of heathen songs we heard psalm tunes hummed by those about the decks, and inquiries as to when we had our prayers, and if they could stay to them, etc. A Christian pilot took us in. Sunday was a day long to be remembered by those in the Morning Star. After our arrival Mr. Taythe church. The first exercise was the marriage of thirty-one couple by Christian marriage. Then followed the baptism of the seventy-one who were to unite with the church. After the baptism ed for the first time on this island It was a solemn service. The Holy Spirit was manifestly present, and we felt assured he had taken up his abode in the hearts of these heathen, and we perceived that God was no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that leareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. We have a great respect for and confidence in the teacher, and admire the judicious manner in which he has conducted the work, given advice, teaching school while preaching the word.
